BOWMAN HILLS SCHOOL announces three great ways to celebrate God's love this Christmas season:
- Thursday, Dec. 2nd at 6:30 p.m. in the school gym, our PreK through 4th graders will present "The Promised One"- a Biblical account of how and why Christ came to earth to live among us.
- Tuesday, Dec. 7th at 6:30 p.m. in the school gym, our 5th through 8th graders will present "Fear Not"- a musical celebration of God's beautiful plan of salvation through the eyes of the angels.
- Tuesday, Dec. 14th at 7:00 p.m. at the Bradley Square Mall, our concert band will present a Christmas concert filled with Spiritually uplifting music.

THE ADVENTURERS AND PATHFINDERS are still collecting items for Afghan families that are relocating to Cleveland. There are collection boxes in the lobby. They need cleaning supplies and toiletry items. We also need people to volunteer to visit or donate furniture. If you are aware of any affordable apartment or home rentals, please text Grant Graves at 423.310.1220. Also, check out the BH Facebook page for specific needs.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS FOOD BOXES: Please bring your donations of food in a decorated box to the church on December 11th to be given out on December 19th. See the insert for suggested food items. Thanks!

CALLING ALL ORCHESTRA PLAYERS: We will have a musical Christmas program during the church service on Dec. 18th. If you play an orchestral instrument and would like to join, please contact Kristy or Tyson for music and rehearsal schedule at knelson@southern.edu or 423.443.9498.

THE FLOWERS TODAY are from the children of Richard and Vonda Cook in celebration of Richard's 88th birthday today! We appreciate you, Dad, and the unconditional, Christlike love that you lavish on all your family and everyone you meet. You are an inspiration to many, and we love you so very much. We hope you enjoy a very blessed Sabbath birthday today, with many more to come!
